Topic outline

Please take time to answer the questions as they appear. Use thoughtful responses and as always, support your opinion with evidence!

1

2 Why do we still continue to read Macbeth 400 years after Shakespeare died? Do you think teachers should still continue to teach his plays (😊) or should teachers just "let his plays die?" (😞) Write a thoughtfully planned response of at least 200 words that conveys how you feel. Use specific evidence to support your ideas!

3 Pick one of the characters from Macbeth and tell a "story" about he/she will do over break. Where will he/she go? What will he/she do? You may choose any time period in history to place him/her in. I want you to be creative and have fun with your story! Make sure you keep the characters traits the same; for instance: Macbeth wouldn't go to the North Pole to take over Santa's position, but Lady Macbeth might... Minimum of 200 words for full credit.
